ALMA MATER

Here's to our Alma Mater, Our own beloved Smithville,
All through the coming ages, We all will love thee still.
To thee we'll all be faithful, Homage to thee we'll pay,
Through thick and thin we'll fight to win,
Until our dying day.
Oh Smithville! Dear old Smithville,

CLASS HISTORY

As we turn back the clock, and peer into the past we see dimly a crowd of Freshies in Smithville High. Ah—it is the Class of 50, but how bashful, how clumsy they seem to be.

The class of 43 members started their high school career under the leadership of Mr. Shambaugh, assisted by the class officers who were:

President	Art Schrock
Vice Presideent	Margaret Marthey
Secretary	Anna Belle Conrad
Treasurer	Patti Bell
Student Council	Kati Bahl
	Jim Burkholder
Reporter	Gail Crouch
Sgt.-at-Arms	Dick Pepperd

The Sophomore class welcomed them with an initiation party in October, which they returned in May.

Entering their Sophomore year they felt a little prouder and a little wiser. Mr. Shambaugh was still their advisor and they elected the following officers:

President	Nancy Lytle
Vice President	Jim Nettleton
Secretary and Treasurer	Margaret Marthey
Student Council	Patti Bell
	Jim Burkholder
Reporter	Millie Fleming
Sgt.-at-Arms	Bob Snoddy

In October they had a party at which they initiated the freshmen. They ended their Sophomore year with 44 members.

At the beginning of the next year they held their heads a little higher, for now they were Upperclassmen!

This year they had a new class sponsor, Mr. Bleadingheiser. The class of 42 members selected the following officers.

President	Jim Nettleton
Vice President	Margaret Marthey
Secretary	June Miller
Treasurer	Beulah Grove
Student Council	Art Schrock
	Nancy Lytle
Reporter	Ellen Donaldson
Sgt.-at-Arms	Bob Snoddy

Their class sweaters arrived the second week of school. On March 15th they gave their class play "You're Young Only Twice" with Miss June Porter directing. The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held May 7 at the Smithville Inn.

Finally in September of 1949 they returned to S.H.S. as Seniors.

They got down to work to raise money for the treasury and elected the following as class officers:

President	Jim Phillips
Vice President	Jim Nettleton
Secretary	June Miller
Treasurer	Margaret Marthey
Student Council	Nancy Lytle
	Jim Burkholder
Social Chairman	Kati Bahl
	Bill Beeler
Reporter	Ellen Donaldson
Sgt.-at-Arms	Bob Snoddy

It wasn't long until the flash of gold appeared on the Seniors hand, for the class rings had arrived. The class play entitled "A Little Honey" was presented Nov. 4th under the direction of Mrs. A. Murray.

They started their last semester by ordering their name cards and announcements, and planning their trip to Washington, D. C. Then came the biggest moments of their high school life, Junior-Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. They ended their last year together with a trip to Washington, D. C.

When they returned they felt their high school education was complete and they entered the world as adults.

CLASS PROPHECY

Kathryn Bahl, the world wide known pianist has returned to her former residence, Smithville, and is giving a banquet for her fellow classmates, graduates of 1950.

It is the night of the reunion and who should arrive, but Bob Snoddy. Bob has been playing professional basketball and is now with the Minneapolis Lakers and has gotten to see a lot of the U. S. He is not yet married.

Next to arrive is a strange sextette, Mildred Fleming, Mary Lou Hoffer, Marlene Roth, John Robert Smucker, Dave Moore and Lloyd Indemuhle. Marlene and Mary Lou are owners of the "Roffer Holstein Farms" with John as manager. Lloyd and Dave are owners of "Indermoore Farms" who raise Jersey cattle. You'd think there would be a little rivalry between the two, but there seems to be none. Millie is dietitian at Indermoore Farms. We wonder if she is getting good pay or if something else is holding her there.

We now catch sight of Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Olinger, the former Beulah Grove. When we asked them where their three children were, they said, "At home with a baby sitter." They also said their children were being taught by one of our classmates, Ethel Zuercher. We're sure they will be taught right. Oh, yes, Wendel is now president of the 50 acre Wooster Rubber Plant.

Margaret Marthey and Berneice Zook are still running around together because they just drove up in Berneice's Buick. Berneice, you know, is an expert on fashions. She is Mistress of Ceremonies on the new television show, "Madam Zook's Fashion Show for Fat and Happy Women." Margaret is also very famous because she has become a Powell model and her face has appeared in many magazines, including "Nature."

As we look around the huge room, we see it has been decorated beautifully by Myrtle Irvin who has her own shop now.

The "brains" of the class have certainly gone places. Richard Miller is Professor of Studyology at Harvard, something that he invented himself. Mary Jean Troyer is Dean of Women at the College of Smithville.

All at once we hear a call, "Make way for the Governor!" And who should walk in but Art Schrock and his efficient secretary, June Miller. They have both gone a long way.

Next to arrive is Elmer Eberly, the able president of the Coal Miner's Union, who was elected to this office following the suicide of John L. Lewis.

As our glance crosses the room, it rests upon the worried face of Annabelle Conrad. She is now head matron at Smithville Orphanage. With her are her able helpers, Freda Gordon and Gale Blough, who are doing a wonderful job. When we ask her why the worried frown, she replies that she didn't get to tuck all the children in bed and she isn't sure that they all said their prayers. She loves them all as if they were her own.

Next we meet Jim Nettleton, who, as you know is the inventor and manufacturer of the Handy Dandy Hay Thrower Offer. We start asking him about it when there is a roar and a crash and after a few minutes, Ellen Donaldson staggers into the room, followed by Patti Bell, President of all Airline hostesses, with her smelling salts and paper cup, Nurse Etta Mae Swisher quickly rushes to her side and after making a hasty examination, announces her as all right. Ellen, you know, is the first woman pilot for the Trans World Air Lines and for all we know, the last.

As we turn around, we come face to face with Jim Christian, the world traveler. We find out that he's been about everywhere including a trip to Mars and Crab Island, an island for bachelors founded by Dale Blough.

We hear someone talking about an Old Maid's Society and find out that it is the society's president, Jean Moser. There is only one catch to this though, Jean was married last month.

Whee! Do you see that snazzy couple that just arrived? It is the one and only Jim Beck and his wife Lydia Rockefeller. Before the night is over we must congratulate Jim on his "catch."

The butler now announces dinner and as we make our way to the huge dining room, we meet up with two more bachelors of our class, Al Brueck and Olin Collins. Olin is Game Warden at Mohican Park, and Al is head butcher at Shellers.

After everyone is seated comfortably around the huge table, the Reverend James Phillips is asked to say grace. Jim is now minister at the ten million dollar Methodist church recently completed in Yellowstone National Park overlooking "Old Faithful."

The delicious banquet has been prepared and is served by June Rudy and Bill Beeler, who have taken over Reining's at Smithville since Mr. Reining has opened a new branch of his famous restaurant "Smithville Inn" in Radio City, New York.

There is a commotion at the head of the table where Mr. Bleadingheiser, our aged sponsor, is sitting. Nurse Etta Mae Swisher rushes to his side and skillfully rescues his dentures on which he was choking.

Kati has secured for our entertainment the best talent obtainable in the United States. Jim Burkholder, who has taken Milton Berle's place in television and Anna Bell Hill, famous ballet dancer from Akron. The performance was magnificent and the members of the class showed their appreciation by a thunderous applause.

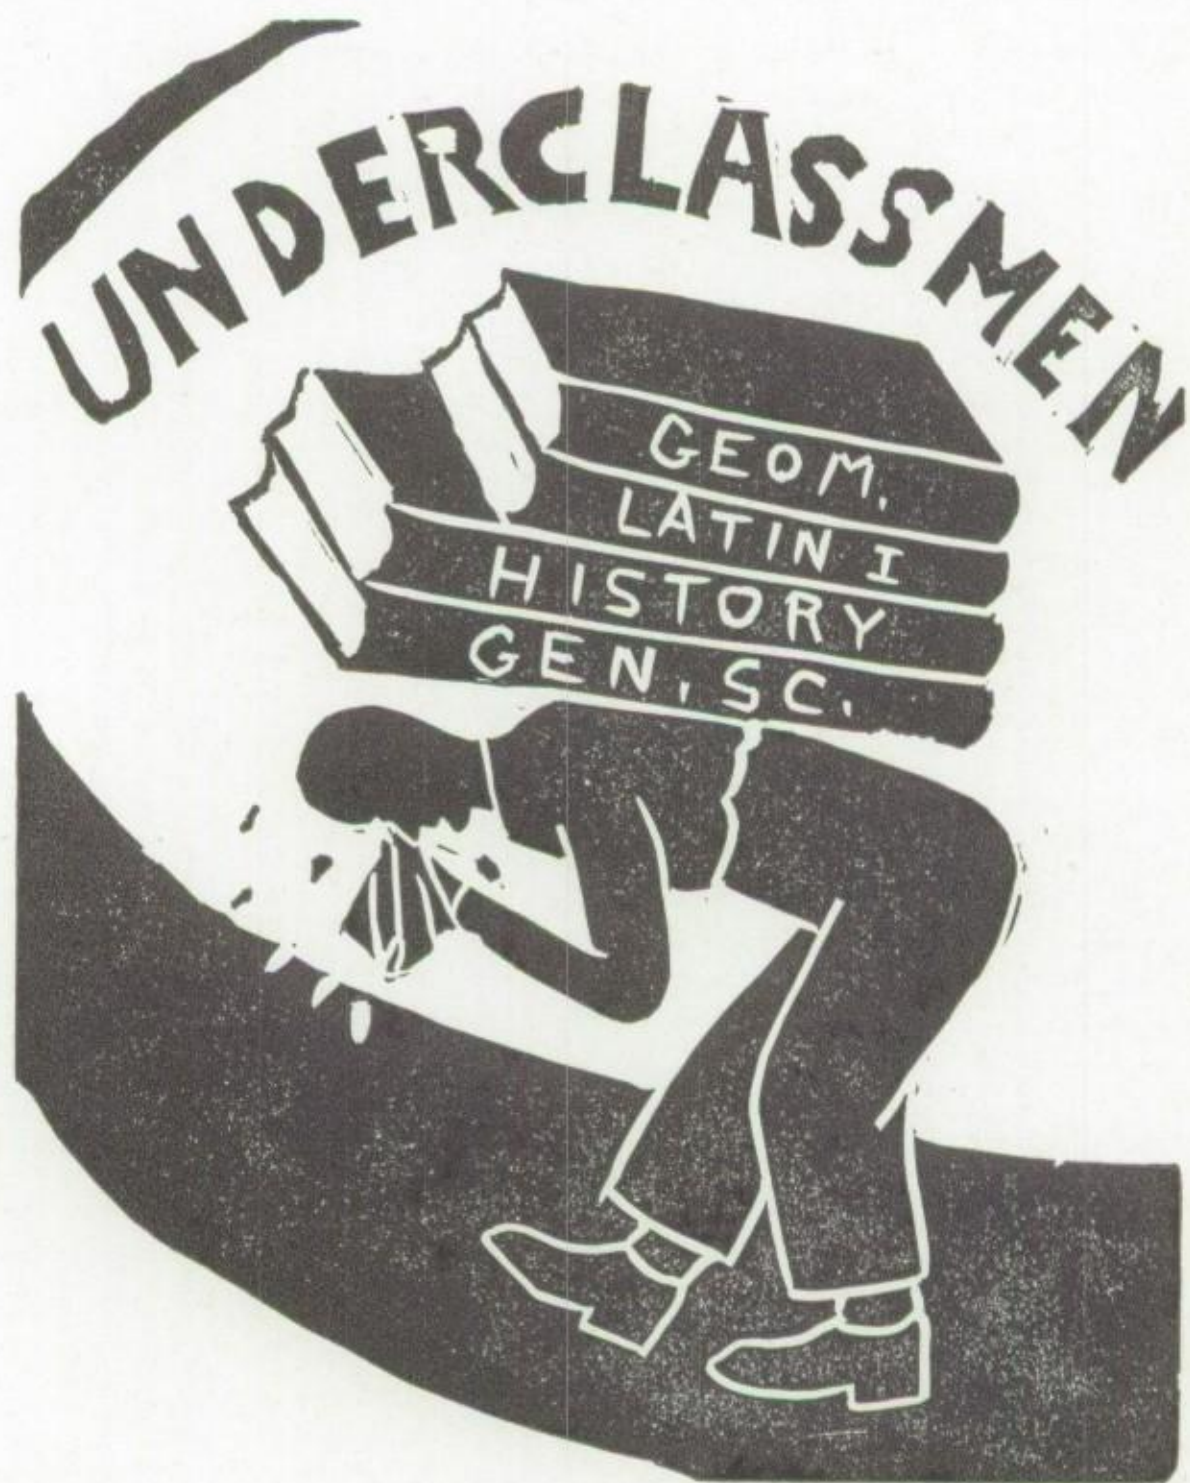

Following this, the class gave a rising vote of thanks to Nancy Lytle, Editor-in-Chief of the publications of "Lytle's Dramatic Readings Inc." whose efforts as corresponding secretary have made it possible for the members of the class to keep informed concerning the activities of each other and who has done a mountainous amount of letter writing to bring about this momentous reunion.

Nancy Lytle, Jim Phillips

Looking back, several events stand out especially great in our memory. Perhaps the greatest events were when we received our class sweaters and rings.

Also, we had a roller-skating party at Medina on March 20, along with several other class parties, our Junior Class Play, and our last, but not least, the annual Junior-Senior Banquet held at Smithville Inn on May 6.

Our social events of the year included an initiation in October and an ice-skating party in February.

We chose our class colors as blue and white. We were thrilled greatly when our sweaters arrived in the middle of December.

We were fortunate to have the reserve cheerleaders from our class. They were Ruth Donaldson, Mary Burkholder, and Sara Burkholder. Also, we had four members of the class on the varsity squad—Dick Hahn, Roger Johnson, Frank Carney, and Carl Beichler. On the reserve team, we had Darrel Schrock and Ronnie Fike.

Our projects for the year were selling pencils with the basketball schedule on them. In October, we sponsored a bake sale.

EIGHTH GRADE CLASS

Through the doors of Smithville High School walked the eighth grade class. We were afraid, meek, and mild, but with Mr. Krohe as our advisor, we have had a nice year in Smithville High.

The officers elected for this year were as follows:

Vice-President	Tommie Marthey
Secretary-Treasurer	Janet Byler
Student Council	Nancy Hostetler, Jim Elliot

Mr. Krohe, coach, had the seventh grade boys on the team to gain experience for them. The team was the smallest and shortest in the county although they won their share of games. Next year they should win more.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The officers elected for this year were as follows:

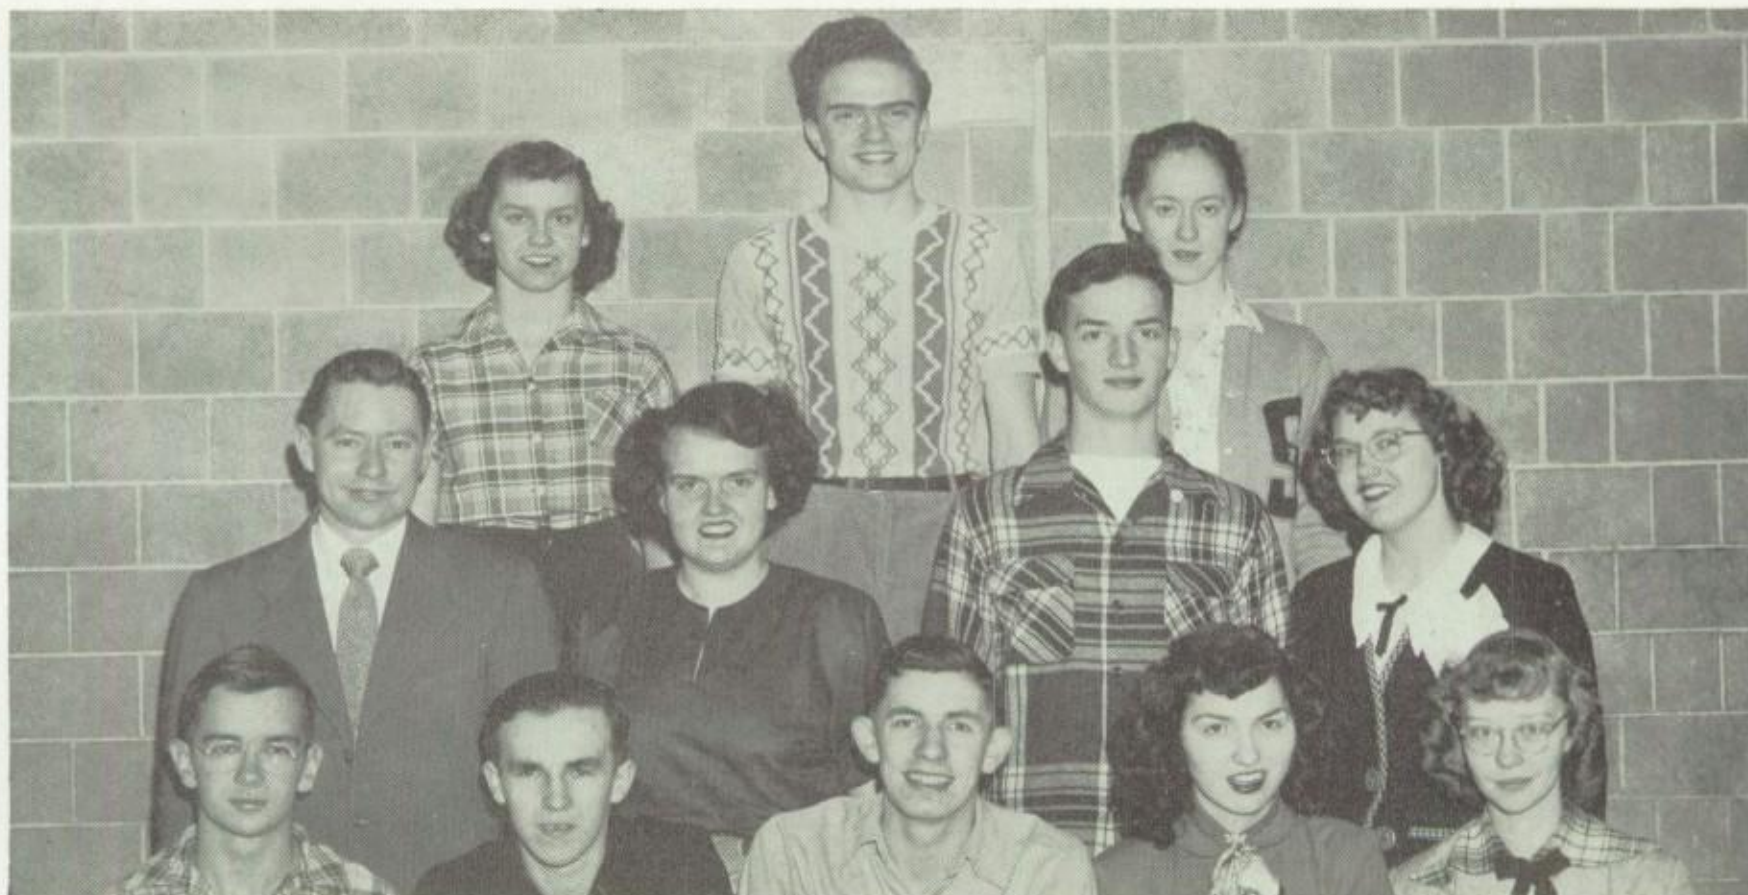

President Art Schrock
Vice-President Tom Burkholder
Secretary Nancy Lytle

The Student Council has been the foremost method of student control in the high school. It deals with problems of activity regulation, student discipline, and general student administration relations.

Each of the five classes in the high school building are represented in this governing body by a boy and girl. Thus, with the president, the Council has eleven members. Mr. Berkey serves faithfully as faculty advisor.

The meetings have been held weekly and the many discussions were informal. One of our main projects of the year was to finance a worthy student in Europe.

Through the co-operation of other schools we were able to provide programs for the home basketball games. The Council sponsored a box social, which is not only considered one of the top social events of the year, but also helps us financially.

First Row—Miller, Schrock, Nettleton, Marthey, Troyer.

Second Row—Mr. Bleadingheiser, Shisler, Burkholder, Schrock.

Third Row—Ramseyer, Aspinall, Conrad.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The qualifications for membership to the National Honor Society are scholarship, leadership, character, and service. You must also be a member of the Junior or Senior class. To be eligible in scholarship, you must have a "B" average and in the other fields you are rated and chosen by the teachers.

Officers chosen for this year were:

President	Jim Nettleton
Vice-President	Arthur Schrock
Secretary-Treasurer	Margaret Marthey

The National Honor Society gave an assembly on November 30, at which time six new members joined the organization. Speeches were given by several of the teachers on the four qualifications for membership. The Society is sponsoring a guidance shelf in the school library. They also sent out questionnaires to the former graduates on request of the Board of Education.

First Row—Bell, Phillips, Hoffer, Beeler, Bahl, Miller, Roth.

Second Row—Donaldson, Nettleton, Marthey, Fleming, Mrs. Murray.

Third Row—Lytle, Schrock, Moore.

"A Little Honey"

This year we once again followed our practice of preparing our class play in three weeks. Although to do this required extra effort on the part of everyone, from Mrs. Murray and the cast to the lowliest stage hand, we feel that in the history of Smithville class plays that this was truly "A Little Honey."

Secretary	Margaret Marthey
Treasurer	Nancy Lytle
Reporter	Alice Schrock

Among the projects for the year was that of learning more about the amateur and professional theater. In accordance with this the group went to the Cleveland Playhouse and found the trip very beneficial.

As well as a project for fun and our own pleasure, we thought it would be a fine idea to do something beneficial to the school. So with this in mind, we bought a make-up kit to be used by any group of the school so desiring.

First Row—Baab, Hostetler, Litman, Burkey, Carney, R. Miller, L. Indermuhle, Moore, Nettleton, Troyer, L. Conrad, Perret.

Watch-dog	Frank Carney

During the summer our officers led us in the following activities: trip to baseball game at Cleveland, Junior's and Senior's trip to Canada, party at Wooster Park, state judging contests and state convention.

Many of our members were active in projects for the Wayne County Fair. Other events for the year were: initiation, chicken roast, hockey game, basketball team, pest hunt contest, public speaking contest, (Stanley Smucker received second in district), parliamentary procedure contest, trip to "Farm and Home Week" in Columbus, chapter crop projects, parent and son banquet, preparation for 1950 state convention.

JUNIOR CHORUS

I think everyone will agree that the Christmas Cantata shows how well the Junior Chorus can sing. Some of them also have taken part as dance groups in the operetta.

JUNIOR-SENIOR CHORUS

The Junior-Senior chorus of about 60 members has had a busy schedule during the school year. Both choruses attended an operetta, "Rio Rita," at Akron and plan to give our own operetta, "Words and Music," under the direction of Miss Carol Aufrance. We also sang over WWST on "Wayne County Schools on the Air." It had been planned that we enter contest work, but due to difficulties we found it impossible.

VARSITY TEAM

Every now and then there comes a year when a basketball team must be rebuilt. Such was the present season. For the first year in a long time four underclassmen were on the varsity. Thus, as a whole, the team was young, without experience, and as a result not too much could be expected. However, this certainly will not be true in the next few years. With six varsity players and a few from the reserve team back next year the immediate future is bright. Missing next year will be, Captain and two year letterman, Bob Snoddy, and also Jim Phillips, Jim Burkholder and Art Schrock.

RESERVE TEAM

This year's reserve team was unique in that it was made up of five freshmen and five members from the sophomore and junior classes. Occasionally, these freshmen carried the battle against the opponents with honor to themselves and the school. Although the reserves only won 50% of the sixteen games they played, five games were lost by only one, two, or three points. These freshmen certainly will be nucleus for a wonderful reserve team next year and those "moving up" will have had valuable experience.

F.F.A. TEAM

This year our F.F.A. basketball team had a rough time. First the team was organized late in the season, with Wayne Hartzler as coach. However, the committee in charge of all basketball activities—consisting of Richard Miller, chairman; Darrell Schrock, and Dick Hahn, contacted Russell Graber of Sterling to coach, with Wayne as assistant.

Because of the difficulty of co-ordinating the schedule of Coach Graber and the school calendar, plus the late start, only four games were played, plus one tournament game. The win-loss record for this year was 1-5; however, the team shows promise for next year since there were no seniors on the team this year.

BASEBALL SQUAD

We started the year without five lettermen of last year's championship season. Back were five other lettermen, and it was around this quintet that our team was built. We did fairly well for ourselves in the fall, winning our first five games, and we will be scrapping to defend our title successfully in the spring. With only one senior, Art Schrock, on the team, our nine will be tough to beat in the coming years.

Little Dick was helping his mother at a Sunday night supper by carrying in the dessert, which happened to be pie. Entering the dining-room with the first piece, he walked over and gave it to his father, who politely handed it to the guest on his right.

Dick came back with another plate, and seeing his father did not have any, again gave it to him. His father passed this piece to the person on his left. When Dick came in with the third plate, he walked over to his father, handed him the plate and said, "It's no use, Daddy, they're all the same size."
